The Historic Fenyes Mansion

Step back in time in Pasadena history and experience how it was to live on “Millionaires Row” at the turn of the century. The unique Beaux Arts house was designed by famed architect Robert Farquhar in 1906 and contains original furnishings, antiques and fine art.

Research Library and Archives

The collection includes over one million historic photographs of the San Gabriel Valley, early city newspapers, registers and documents plus important historical books and letters.
